

Amira Omar

WEB DEVELOPER (.NET DEVELOPER)

WHY ME

I am working as a web developer (.NET developer)

I have been working in this field for a year, After I received a training at the Information Technology Institute as a summer training.

My work is to transform the site from just design to an integrated and interactive work environment with the user and the database, also working on designing, storing and processing databases using Microsoft SQL Server.

I am proficient in using C# (LINQ), Microsoft SQL Server, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery (Ajax), Bootstrap, SASS.

I could Upgrade, Configure and Debug existing systems.
